DCN:HMS-01

APPLICATION FOR ORDER EXTENDING DEADLINE

Comes now HANK M. SPACONE, Trustee for the above estate, and applies to the Court for an Order Extending Deadlines. This application is made pursuant to the terms of the Stipulation Regarding Extending Deadlines, as signed by the Trustee, the Debtor(s) and the Debtor's Attorney, if any; which is filed herewith and incorporated herein by reference.

The trustee further states that this proposed extension of deadlines is in the best interest of the estate and asks that the Court enter an Order extending the deadline(s) as shown in the stipulation (a).

(a) Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 4004 and 4007 allow the Court, on motion of any party in interest, to extend the time for filing a complaint objecting to discharge or dischargibility. The motion is to be made before the time has expired.

11 USC §102(1) defines "after notice and a hearing" as such notice as is appropriate in the particular circumstances. The Trustee, because of the Stipulation, believes that an Order here is appropriate without an actual hearing in these particular circumstances.
